

2015 Kansas City Irish Center Christmas Ornament Contest Rules

1. The contest is free to enter and open to all ages. There is no restriction as to when the piece was created. Only hand-made pieces will be accepted. No limit on number of entries.
2. All entries become the property of Kansas City Irish Center (KCIC). First and Second place winners shall become part of the Center's permanent textile collection. All other ornaments will be sold or raffled to support the Center's programming.
3. All entries must incorporate Irish Knit or Irish Crochet in some manner; traditional/historical techniques are preferred. You must be able to suspend your entry from a Christmas tree branch. Entries will be judged on overall appearance, quality and craftsmanship.
4. Entries need to be submitted no later than 7pm, December 1st with a completed entry form for each entry. We promise to be very careful with your entry, but the KCIC is not responsible for any damage.
5. Judging will be completed on December 7th. All winners will be notified by phone/email.
6. Decisions of the judges are final. Peoples' choice award is determined by public on-site voting.
7. KCIC reserves the right to use winners' names and pictures of their entries for use in future promotional materials.
